

The 21 Irrefutable Laws of Leadership
by
John Maxwell

Coarse Introduction

- 1) Name three people who you know that you consider a great leader.
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.

- 2) For each of these people, list a characteristic that you believe makes them a great leader.
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.

- 3) Name three areas where leadership is needed.
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.

- 4) WHO DO YOU WANT TO LEAD?

- 5) Coarse Outline
 - a. Leadership requires the ability to do more than one thing well.
 - b. No one does all 21 laws well.
 - c. Leadership Evaluation – Pages 269 – 276

THESE LAWS CAN BE LEARNED

THESE LAWS CAN STAND ALONE

THESE LAWS CARRY CONSEQUENCES WITH THEM

THESE LAWS ARE THE FOUNDATION TO LEADERSHIP

(All of us can become better leaders and the more laws we learn – the more effective leader we will become.)